RIEGL users and potential users will be brought together for a three day conference featuring new products, intensive learning and interaction between users and RIEGL staff through the joining of our business segments.

A special conference rate is available at the Marriott Vienna, as well as at the Intercity and the IBIS Hotel. Austrian Airlines as official airline carrier offers 15% discount on all applicable fares.

With the success of RIEGL LIDAR 2012 which focused on the history, user presentations and partner presentations, our users and potential users will experience a new depth of training, development and future applications.

Conference Highlights:

- Three days of comprehensive keynote, panel and breakout segment sessions
- Focus on terrestrial, airborne, mobile and industrial scanning
